THE

FRIEND

A

RELIGIOUS AND LITERARY JOURNAL.

VOLUME LXXIII.

1226 Westtp. Friends

PHILADELPHIA:
PRINTED BY WM. H. PILE'S SONS.
1900.

XUM

INDEX.

Abide in Christ, 93.
Advance by advancing. Remarks entitled, 226.
Affliction makes us sympathize with and willing to help others, 81.
One bond left, supports in, 84.
Africa. On the effects of Christian treatment of natives of, 218.
The recent death of martyrs in, 239.
Divine overruling in reference to certain natives of, 354.
Earnest desires of a poor boy from, for a knowledge of the Truth, 407.
Agnostic disqualified as a witness. An, 351.
Agriculture. On the benefits of, as compared with life in the city, 37.
Illustration of modern methods in, 111.
On the world's largest farm, 294.
Air. Liquid used in assisting combustion, 143.
Alabaster boxes of kindness and sweetness not to be kept till our friends are dead, 164
Alaska. On the introduction of reindeer into, 219.
Angry and sin not." Remarks on the expression "Be ye, 202.
Animals. Medical instincts of, 406.
Anxious thoughts for the morrow. Encouragement to the Christian to avoid, 34.
Arbitration. The desire of Alexander I. of Russia for, in 1812, 82.
The value of international, 387.
On the plans for international, proposed by the Conference at the Hague, 36. 39. 399.
Remarks on the aid given to, by the United States, 198. 399.
Are many saved? 28.
Arithmetic 1700 B. C. Notice of, 164.
"As the tree falleth so it lies." Communication entitled, 349.
Asbestos and its uses. On, 338.
Athletics vs. gymnastics, 78.

Baby. The humanizing effects of a, upon women prisoners, 124.
Babylonia. Notice of clay tablets found in, made about 2300 B. C., 111.
Balloon. Account of the ascent of a, more than five miles high, 151.
Banana-plant. The value of different parts of the, 2.
Baptism with water one of the weak and beggarly elements, 179.
A vindication of Christians who reject water, 310. 317. 325. 330. 339. 347.
Remarks on the above, 345.
Barclay Robert. A sermon by, 390.
Barclay's Apology. Notice of a Turkish translation of, in manuscript, 9.
instrumental in the convincement of Samuel Crisp 291.
instrumental in the convincement of George W. Reed, 333. 338.
On the allusion to "Hai Eben Yokdan" in, 367.
Be patient, 37.
Beecher Lyman. Peculiar habits of, 211.
Bedlam. The derivation of the modern meaning of, 63.
Bellows John. Remarks of, on the testimony of Friends to plainness of speech, 33.
Letter of, on the death of Wilson Sturge, 121.
Bells. On, 87. 367.
Benevolence. Remarks on, when exercised under the leadings of the Holy Spirit, 153.
Birds. Statistics of the number of, killed for their plumage, 47.
Reasons for the various shapes of the eggs of, 250.
A plea for the, by Senator Geo. F. Hoar, 331.
On bearing a testimony against fashion, by refusing to wear the feathers, etc., of, 332.
Black. A new, pigment made from acetylene gas, 84.
Blaming others. On indulging in the habit of, 297.
Blankets. First made by weavers named Blanket, 270.
Blunders as discipline, not as hindrances, 127.
Bonner Archibald. Escape of from the Inquisition, 379.
Book. A, to be avoided, 39.
Book Notices, &c. An account of the lives and happy deaths of some Indians deceased on the Alleghieny, Cattaraugus and Cornplanter Reservations, 57.
The Venlig Budbringer, 71.
The Quakers in the Revolution, by Isaac Sharpless, 95.
The great cry of oppression, &c., 1683, by Wm. Stockdale. 110.
The Montreal Witness, the only Christian daily newspaper in the world, 111.
A History of Quaker Government in Penna., Vol II., by Isaac Sharpless, 127.
The Narragansett Friends' Meeting, by Caroline Hazard, 129.
A History of Pennsylvania, by Dr. A. S. Bolles, 177, 183.
The Canadian Doukhobor Settlements, by Lally Bernard, 177.
A History of Pennsylvania, by Isaac Sharpless, 183.
In his steps, by C. M. Sheldon, 198.
Bushido, the soul of Japan, &c., by Inazo Nitobe, 215.
El Amigo, a monthly periodical published in Havana, Cuba, 248. 279. 391. 399.
Cheap editions of the Journal of John Woolman, 351.
A Plea in behalf of Peace, addressed to Christian professors of every name, by Philadelphia Yearly Meeting, 371.
North Carolina Friend, 255. 303.
Bowing. On the origin of, 66.
Boy. Calculations of a, on the cost to his parents of raising him, 172.
A good reference for a, seeking employment, 247.
Noble action in a, 250. 366. 382.
A, shown the necessity of obedience, 276.
The calm death of a Christian, 295.
The kind of a, wanted by an employer, 299.
Honorable conduct in a news- 366.
Boys. Dull, who became distinguished men, 139.
On cultivating in, a sense of responsibility for the liberty of after life, 161.
A talk with, on bravery, 367.
Brave act. Incident entitled, A, 250.
Brooding over evil. On, 212.
Brooks Phillips. Anecdote of the late, 85.
Brooklyn, N. Y. A large proportion of the inhabitants of, non-attenders of meetings for worship, 231.
Boone Jemima Reese. Account of the life and Christian character of, 323.
Browne Edward, formerly of Sunderland, Eng. An account of, 242, 250.
Burritt Elihu. Testimony of, against war. 297.
Business. Advice of the three Monthly Meetings of Friends in Philadelphia in 1805, on the conducting of, 68.
The importance of seeking Divine guidance in choosing a, 182.
The advantage of attending to the Divine Guide in, 386.
On kid-glove and coal-oil men in, 190.
Business and cares of the world. Advice of living above the, 38.
Buttons on the back of men's coats. The origin of, 263.

California. Observations on the grand and beautiful scenery of, 147.
Camphor. The increasing consumption of, likely to exhaust the supply, 93.
Canary birds. On the training of, 219.
Capper Mary. Account by, of her convincement as a Friend, 289.
Capper Samuel. Account of a religious visit paid by, in Ireland. in 1841, &c., 69. 77. 84. 92. 115. 124. 131.
Cat in the bag. Extract entitled, The, 299.
Charity. On the evil effects of receiving gifts for, from the "injurious," 330.
Remarks on, as distinguished from almsgiving, 354.
Charge to Keep." Extract entitled "A, 286.
Chicago. Remarks on foreigners in, 351.
Child. The experience of a, in having an idle day, 206.
On receiving truth as a little, 319.
Remarks of a, on having found God, 390.
China. Statistics of the opium curse in, 324.
Chinese. A common saying among, 167.
Instructive teaching of a, 394.
Character. On the making of, in the early periods of life, 31. 356. 380.
The influence of, greater than that of words, 225.
influenced for good by looking at the grand and beautiful, 244.
Child study. Essay entitled, 141. 269.
One boy's debt to, 198.
Children. Illustration of punishing, by love and by fear, 36.
The discouraging effect upon, of a harsh and severe manner in parents, 83.
The importance of training, to rely upon their own efforts, 93.
The value to, of committing portions of The Holy Scriptures to memory, 284.
Three young, safely perform a long journey, 356.
A true story for the, 356.
The importance of setting a good example to, 412.
Christian outlook for the twentieth century. A, 35.
religion. The effects of, exemplified in the island of Ephati, 95.
character. On the development of the, by suffering, 150. character speaks for itself. A, 282.
ideal, a constantly rising one. The, 358.
Church. On the tendency of the professing, to dwell in the outer court, 25.
The visible, not free from tares, 45.
The, a worthless thing, unless animated by the Holy Spirit, 55.
Worldliness in the professing, 79. 198. 239. 295. 303. 314. 335. 359.
Ministry in the early Christian, allowed to those only who spoke from the Spirit, 95.
No order holding clerical offices existed in the early Christian, 111.
On the present worldly state of the professing, 123. 399.
On the character of the preachers of the primitive, 135.
The heresy of self-government by a, 194.
What the first, did not have, 199.
A, must uphold its standard if it would continue its separate organization, 231.
discipline. Neander on, and comments, 245.
The foundation of the true, is Christ inwardly revealed to the soul, 249.
On the pretentions of priestliness in the professing, 262.
A rupture in a, caused by hastily receiving members, 263.
The services performed by hidden workers in the, 281.
Denunciation of worldliness in the, by the monk Ignatius, 295.
Comments on the above, 314.
On forms and testimonies in the professing, 305.
On the desolating effect of war upon the, 329.
No confusion in the, under the administration of the Holy Spirit, 335.
The absence of life in the, attributed to the want of lay preaching, 361.
On raising money in the, by entertainments, &c., 362.

XUM

Church. The true strength of the, 363.
On the use of force, by the early professing Christian, 407.
Christ for an age of doubt. Extract entitled The, 42.
Remarks on the above, 42.
The truer to, the nearer to men, 87.
Christ. Stumbling blocks which turn people from, 66.
as the Comforter and Advocate, 100.
Remarks on daily living under the spirit of, 153. 273. 330. 331.
On the inward and invisible society formed by, 159.
Co-operation with, the way of salvation, 177.
The reality of the indwelling presence of, 182. 289, 369.
On the meek and lowly example of, 188. 295. 329.
On evidences of right feeling among peoples who have not known, by history, 215.
The revelation of, the foundation of the church, 249. 369.
On coming to, 252.
A child's remark in reference to, 274.
Essay entitled Why deny, 290.
The teachings of, upon the happiness of serving others, 292.
On co-operating with, in the work of salvation, 292.
Evidences of that, was more than a man, 295.
Comments on the above, 329.
On trusting in, not in good works, 299.
the revealer of the Father, 341.
the spring of all sincere patriotism, 361.
On the acceptance of the doctrine of the light of, in the heart, 369.
Out of, while living in sin, 386.
Hearing the voice of, is what we continually need, 394.
The words of, cannot pass away, 399.
The atonement and offices of, not sufficiently upheld in the churches, 399.
Christianity, not passing away, 146.
On the progress of, among Jews, 158.
The propagation of, among the heathen hindered by imperialism, 166.
On the greatness of, 204.
On beneficent reforms introduced by, 335.
Chrysostom. The Christian boldness of, 71.
Christians. Too many professing, are the creatures of circumstances, 137.
The testimony of the early, against war, 316.
"Christians, obey your Captain." Tract against war, entitled. 298.
Christmas will be less observed as people observe Christ more, 153.
The historical origin of, 199.
Choosing one's life work under Divine Guidance. On, 182.
Cigarettes. A protest against, from the Social Purity Alliance, 263.
Clock. Account of a "magic," 92.
Coals of fire. Illustration of the power of forgiveness, entitled 307.
Coffee. The per capita consumption of, in different countries, 20.
Notice of Austrian "fig," 79.
Coffin Narcissa B. Memorial of, 5.
Remarks on the above, 25.
Colored people. Sensible advice of Booker Washington to the, 119.
in South Carolina. Appeal on behalf of the, 271.
Communion with God. Extract entitled, 25. of the bread and wine. The unsatisfying nature of the, 179.
Consumer's Leagues. On the origin and object of, 2.
Comfort. On guarding against making an idol of, 293.
College students. An address to, by one who had been a student, 282.
Condescension. The wisdom of, 194.
Conference at The Hague. The results of the international, 36. 39.
Confessors of peace. Account of the early Christians entitled, 316.
Confucius. Samples of the sayings of, 396.
Contentment follows when the soul is made right, 126. illustrated, 226.
Conversation. On the tendency of our, 181.
On watching over our. 393.
Conversions. On distinguishing between true and false, 414.
Convictions. On the importance of knowing the reasons of our, 36.
of truth often require time for their development, 319.
Corn stalks. The value of, 93.
Courtesy. Illustrations of real, 287.
Courteous manner. The importance of a, 30.
Commencement gown. Remarks on the expenses attending, The, 346.
Comments on the above, 346.
Correspondence. 183. 199. 215. 279. 303. 320. 367.
Coming to Christ. Essay entitled, 252.
Cope Morris. Letter of, to a young Friend, 346.
Crime. The effects of bad reading matter in producing, 117. 223.
Statistics of, in the United States for 1899. 223.
Criticism. A brief but effective' 358.
Illustration of, 374.
Crisp Samuel. Letter of, upon his convincement of the principles of Friends, 291.
Cross to be met with in little as well as great things, The, 51.
Cross as the final seat of authority. Extract entitled, The, 363.
Cuba. An appeal for help for the reconcentrado orphans in, 125.
A religious body under the name of "Friends" in, 159. 248. 271. 279. 399.
Notice of a proposed effort to instruct schoolteachers for, 353. 401.
Cultivate resources. Extract entitled, 243.

Dance. The dangers of the, 221.
Dancing. Statistics showing the deplorable effects of, on women, 79.
Experience of Adam Clarke on the evils of, 364.
Date tree. The, acclimated in Arizona, 27.
Davy Humphrey. Anecdote of, while a boy, 214.
Day in Holland. Essay entitled, A, 101.
"Days should speak." Remarks on improving opportunities for good, entitled, 106.
Deaths.—Samuel Abbott, 216; Martha D. Allen, 288; Rebecca S. Allen, 288; Abner Allmon, 304; Hannah Brantingham, 24; Amy J. Brooks, 64; Martha L. Bartlett, 128; Elizabeth Bean, 152; Jemima R. Boone, 200. 323; Sarah Battey, 312; Amy S. Barton, 328; Sarah M. Burgess, 352; Mercy Cope 56; David M. Chambers, 56; Mary M. L. Crew, 192; Horatio G. Cooper, 248; David Comfort, 256; Mary Coppock, 304; Edith S. Cheyney, 312; Lucy B. Cadwallader, 312; Mary D. Crew, 360; Sarah J. Dutton, 248; Micajah Emmons, 24; Edith Conrow Edgerton, 224; Rachel K. Evens, 280; Mary Hutton Fritchman, 192; James H. Griffith, 136; Richard S. Griffith, 248; Thomas W. Gardiner, 312; John I. Glover, 384; Thomas Hobson, 40; Anna W. Hutchinson, 96; Rachel W. Healey, 104; Ann Harmer, 136. 168; Sarah E. Haight, 192; Elizabeth Haight, 200; Sarah Jane Haight, 200; Isabella Henderson, 208; Rachel Harmer, 232; M. Ella Hall, 296; Caleb Hoopes, 304; Mary Harrison, 304; Lydia W. Haines, 312; Barnabas Halway, 328; Susan N. Haines, 344; Amos W. House, 384; Margaretta S. Hinchman, 280; Melissa Johnson, 8. 40; Joseph Jones, 288; Hannah H. Jones, 336; Edwin James, 352; William Kite, 280; Elizabeth R. Levick, 232; Martha A. Lupton, 304; Rachel G. Moore, 128; Sarah Mason, 200; Arthur Mullett, 200; Marianna Moore, 296; Robert W. Maris, 312; Edward Maris, M. D., 408; James S. Newbold, 336; Asenath Osborn, 48; Samuel Oliphant, 128; Hannah Parry, 96; James M. Price, 96; Grace Packer, 184; Anna Painter, 256; Mary T. Pierson, 272; Lydia B. Price, 352; Mary Peacock, 368; Abigail Ann H. Roberts, 8; Marion Edith Russell, 176; Thomas J. Rorke, 216; Ellen L. Rockwell, 240; Edward Reeve, 256; William S. Richardson, 352; Elizabeth Rhoads, 384; John M. Rudolph, 408; Jane Scott, 64; Annie E. Stern, 64; Hettie N. Stokes, 120; Martha Stanley, 200; Jesse Stover, 200; Elias W. Siler, 272; Ann Shove, 352; Augusta Standing, 368. 376; Isaac W. Thornburg, 64; Abbie B. Taylor, 104; Maria B. Taylor, 120; Beulah A. Thomas, 384; Rebecca H. Taylor, 400; Eliza Vernon, 256; Abigail Vail, 256; Mary Wood, 16; Henrietta R. Willets, 56; Sarah V. Wright, 200; Catharine S. Webster, 272; Sarah W. Williams, 312; Ann L. Williamson, 320; Esther Fisher Wistar, 328; Joab Wills, 376.
Death to the appetites and passions. Remarks on, 218.
Deeper work of grace. Essay entitled A, 374.
Defamation, reproved, 207. 213.
Development and place of the Monthly Meeting. Essay entitled, The, 35. 46.
Dewees, William and Debby. Reminiscences in the life of, 276. 284. 293. 298. 306. 315.
Died rather than kill. An Armenian who, 223
Disappointments often turn to blessings, 2.
Divine judgment. Remarkable instances of, 349.
"Do thy best and leave the rest," 349.
Doing without things. Extract entitled, 263.
Dream. An instructive, 66.
A lover of music turned from it by a, 279.
Dress. Gayety in, inconsistent with the Christian profession, 28.
The plain, of Friends sometimes opens the way for profitable intercourse with strangers, 131.
On, viewed in connection with the Society of Friends, 228. 236.
The testimony of Friends in regard to plainness of, to be established in the earth, 253.
Against the wearing of the feathers, &c., of birds in, 332.
Remarks of Morris Cope on, 346.
Dudley Mary. Notice of eminent services in the ministry of, 235.
Doukhobors in the year 1815. Account of the, 4.
The fourth shipload of, arriving in Canada, 7.
On the character and belief of the, 15. 23. 324.
Appeal of one of the, to the Empress Alexandra, 23.
Remarks of the Minister of the Interior in Canada on the moral courage of the, 31.
Account of a visit of Jos. S. Elkinton and Wm. Evans to the, in Canada, 46. 51. 59. 65. 263.
Notes on the condition of the, in Canada, 52, 97.
Notice of a religious visit by Eliza H. Varney and Job S. Gidley to the, in Canada, 57. 65. 73. 113. 153.
Letter of William Bellows respecting the, in Canada, 65.
Account of Job S. Gidley of his visit to the, 74. 90. 105. 113.
Notice of the pressing need of the Cyprus, in Canada, 90.
Appeal on behalf of the suffering, in Canada, 97.
Address read at a public meeting of Friends in Philadelphia, Tenth Month 5, 1899, respecting the, 97.
Notice of a meeting of Friends in Philadelphia in the interest of the, 103. 122. 324.
Remarks on the labors of Wilson Sturge in Cyprus on behalf of the, 121.
Account of ploughing by, in Canada, with the help of women, 121.
Notes on the present condition of, in Canada, &c., 122. 246. 258. 266. 277. 282. 292. 300. 309. 319. 324. 342. 348. 383. 407.
Visit of J. S. Elkinton and W. B. Harvey to the, in Canada, 127. 135. 142. 149. 151. 157. 167. 174. 175. 183.
A visit of Dr. William Saunders to the, in Canada, 138.
Helping the, may be of benefit to those interested in them, 145.
The coming of, to America, and the visiting of, by Friends a fulfillment of prophecy, 153, 169.
Remarks on the above, 184.
Letter from the, to the Society of Friends, 73. 158. 185. 324.
Notice of supplies forwarded to the, from Philadelphia, 159. 183.
Notice of a series of letters respecting the, by Lally Bernard, 177.
On not encouraging the women among the, to do fancy work, 199.
On the labors of Friends on behalf of the, 215. 311. 391.
Remarks on the constancy of, under sufferings, 221.
exiles in Siberia. Notice of an application by Friends for the release of, 258. 324.
Address to the, in Canada by a Committee of the Meeting for Sufferings in Phila., 266.
Schedule of settlements of, in Canada, 309.
Report of the Committee of the Meeting for Sufferings in Philadelphia for the help of the, 324.
Notice of a visit of Jos. S. Elkinton and Jona. E. Rhoads to the, in Canada, 399. 407, Dunkards. Refusal of, to receive again property stolen from them, 79.
Duties when real do not conflict, 129.

Dymond Jonathan. Remarks of, on the power for evil or for good of newspapers, 257.

Ecumenical Conference of 1900. Notice of, 271.
Remarks of T. L. Cuyler before the, on carrying liquor to the Philippines, 398.
Edison Thomas A. An incident in the early history of, 118.
Editorial. On the loss of spiritual power in the so-called "June Meetings" of Friends, 1; On Friends' weddings, 1; Thoughts in the neighborhood of an ancient Monthly Meeting, 9; A study in inconsistency, 17; Notice of a letter from John G. Whittier, 17; Not of debt, but of grace, 25; The clothing of unbelief with Christian virtues, 33; Remarks on an article entitled "The Development and place of the Monthly Meeting," 33; "Doth He thank that servant?" 41; Stimulation and quickening, 41; Remarks on an essay by Georgina K. Lewis, 42; Remarks on selections from a work by Henry Van Dyke, 42; Edifying correspondence, 49; Notice of a visit to the Doukhobors in Canada by Eliza H. Varney, 57; Notice of an "Account of the lives and happy deaths of some Indians deceased on the Allegheny, Cattaraugus and Corn Planter Reservations," 57; The times for gospel testimony, 57; Remarks on baptism and the communion, 81; On a paid ministry, 81; Truly reverend and honorable, 81; Appeal on behalf of the Doukhobors entitled, "A tribe of the Israel of the Prince of Peace," 97; Christianity and war, 105; Shall an applicant join the Society or its principles? 105. 113; Remarks on a kind response to an appeal for help, 121; Notice of the death of Wilson Sturge, 121; The passing of Friendly intercourse, 121; A slander met, 121; Conflicting duties, 129; Remarks on the blighting curse of alcohol in the army, 137; Illustration of the strength of character that is fostered by attending mid-week meetings, 137; Remarks on the pastoral system, entitled "A Liberty for Bondage," 137; Which hath the greater need, the poor man of the rich, or the rich man of the poor? 145; How readest thou? 145; Aimless impulses, 145; Notice of a statement of John Fiske respecting Friends, 145; A prediction fulfilled, 153; A baptized benevolence, 153; Remarks on the singing of psalms of praise by David, 161; "Out of the strong came forth sweetness," 161; An appeal taken from the ontward to the inward, 161; The possibilities of a true friend in 1899. The new Speaker [of the House of Representatives] on war, 162; Divine worship not dependent upon the removal of the hat, 169; The seat of war is in the human heart, 169; Remarks on playing football entitled "Risking life for personal triumph," 169; Lonesome work, 177; Notice of a History of Pennsylvania, by Dr. A. S. Bolles, 177; Notice of "The Canadian Doukhobor Settlements," by Lally Bernard, 177; Carnal dependence and moral independence, 193; Public and hidden evangelists, 193; Remarks on bearing a testimony against war, entitled "Wounded in the house of its friends," 194. 209; The recognition of spiritual gifts, 201; Friends' Record Depository, 201; Notice of appreciation by strangers of silent worship in a Friends' meeting, 209; On the equality of male and female attendance of Friends' meetings, 217; Religion to be promoted among men only by the aid of the Holy Spirit, 217; Trustees and embezzlers of time, 225; Table manners before the Divine host, 225; Remarks on answering the queries, entitled, "Our brother's keeper or our brother's brother?" 233; Remarks on the non-admission of articles of political mention in these columns, 233; Correction of an error, 233; The publication of the names of the writers of communications advised, 233; The difference between believing in Christ and in believing about Him, 241. 249; Correction, 242. 249; Man-minded, 249; Distinctiveness in a minor testimony, 249; The profligate press, 257; Remarks on the late William Kite entitled, "An ensample to the flock," 258; Quotation in regard to the desolating effects upon the Society of a ministry exercised as a matter of course. 265; Quotations distinguishing benevolent impulses, &c., from the essence of Quakerism, 265; A thing not be done in a corner, 265; On the importance of obedience to manifested duty, 273; Notice of an effort to relieve sufferers from famine in India, 273; Remarks to contributors, 273; Comments on a statement in regard to war, 281; Our hidden workers, 281; On improving vacant lots, 281; The nerves mistaken for the Spirit, 281; If there be any praise, think on it, 297; The letter and the life, 305; Two classes of forms, 305; Notice of the proceedings of Philadelphia Yearly Meeting, 313. 321; Notice of the Memorial of Joseph Walton, 322; Brief remarks, 329; On the needful qualification for gospel ministry, 329; On the desolating effect of war upon the church, entitled, "An Incipient Apostasy, 329; The doctrinal use of the Scriptures in Friends' schools, 337; Remarks on conducting THE FRIEND, entitled, "Gathering from many flowers," 345; Baptism by a material element, 345; Remarks on an extract entitled, "The commencement gown, 346; On worship, entitled, "The meeting and the reading-room," 353; Notice of a proposed effort to instruct Cuban school-teachers, 353; Immortal decorations, 361; A layman's protest in regard to ministry, 361; Remarks on not yielding to the worldly influence of our surroundings, 361; A religious revolution, 369; Remarks on ministry, entitled, "A topic or a message," 369; Words and their immortality, 377; Spreading the truth, 377; Remarks on a growth in grace, entitled, "The literary and the laboratory culture," 385; Tongue-sinning and conduct sinning, 393; An editorial letter, 401; Resting and rusting, 409; Comments on an arraignment of spurious patriotism by William Everett, 409.
Education. The heathen, not converted by secular, 55.
if not accompanied by regeneration may aid in the commission of the greatest sin, 144.
to fit persons for the duties of life. Remarks, on an, 286.
Educational inheritance. Our, 213.
Egypt. Expected benefit to, by damming the Nile 111.
Notice of a work on arithmetic, &c., found in, 3600 years old, 164.
Employees. Remarks on suitably rewarding, 41.
England. The weakening of the commercial supremacy of, by intemperance, 260.
Church of. Summary of the claims of "High Churchmen" of the, 268.
English language. The predominance of the, in the correspondence of the world, 107.
The use of the capital letter in the personal pronoun I, a notable peculiarity, 144.
Epistle of tender caution against stumbling at the faults of others, 108.
Evans Lewis. Birthday reflections of, who died in his 32nd year, 239.
Evans Thomas. Concern of, in regard to progress of religion in the soul, 106.
Concern of, for the maintenance of plainness of dress, &c., by Friends, 107.
Everett, William. An examination of patriotism and war by, 409.

Faithfulness. On the importance of individual, 286.
Faith. On saving, 82.
as distinguished from belief, 277.
On asking for more, 285.
The strong, of a little girl in God, 333.
Falling by heredity, rising by grace, 225.
Family. The great influence of the, upon individual welfare, 202.
Farm. The world's largest, 294.
Farmer's boy. Advice to the, 37.
Faultfinding. The evil effects of the habit of, upon all, 86. 90. 297.
Faults. Counsel against stumbling at the, of others, 108.
Fiction. The killing effect of, upon practical sympathy, 196.
Finiguerra, the engraver. Anecdote of, 214.
Finns. Imprisoned for their religion in 1826. Account of, 190.
The patience of the, under grievances from Russia, 300.
Fire-fighters in New York city. Remarks on, 283.
Fire. How savage nations get their, 318.
Fisher John. Account of [concluded from Vol. lxxii. p. 411], 6.
First-day of the week. On the injury done by papers published on the, 223.
Flower. The largest, in the world, 253.
Food. On Austrian "fig" coffee, 79.
Fool's folly. Extract entitled, A, 51.
For the Master's use—a parable, 94.
Forgiveness. The power of, 31. 307.
The blessing of, 85.
Football. Remarks on playing, entitled Risking life for personal triumph, 169.
On the injuries caused by games of, and the duty of Friends in regard to them, 180.
Essay entitled Whether or not to justify the dangerous game of, 244.

Fox George. Incidents in the life and ministry of, 3. 14. 21. 29. 37.
Remarks on, as "Cromwell's greatest contemporary," 13.
Notice of relics of, preserved in London, 60.
Forrest estate. Notice of a report of the trustees of, 335.
France. On the origin of Friends in, 405.
Franklin Benjamin. On the moral wisdom of, 50.
FRIEND THE. Remarks on conducting, 345. 382.
Friend. A, made instrumental in the salvation of a dying woman, 389.
Friends. Religious communications addressed to, 10. 13. 54. 55. 188. 222. 247. 252. 262. 270. 271. 278. 302. 332. 340. 358. 366. 374. 395. 398. 415.
On the state of society of, 1. 9. 17. 33. 95. 105. 127. 137. 175. 217. 279. 305. 314. 345. 353. 359. 382. 415.
On the loss of spiritual power in the ministry, attending modern innovations, 1. 17. 95. 127. 137.
Remarks on weddings among, 1.
Gleanings in the early history of, 3. 14. 21. 29. 37.
On the harmony and coherency of the doctrines of, 9.
Caution to, against formal gatherings of peace, temperance and missionary associations, &c., 13.
The preciousness of silence in the meetings for worship of, 20. 111. 209. 289. 350. 372.
On the testimony of, to plainness of speech, &c., 33, 253. 393. 394.
On the development and place of the Monthly Meeting among, 35. 46.
On keeping up the interest of young people in the Society of, 44.
On the mission of, 54.
of Philadelphia Yearly Meeting. Remarks on the labors of, among Indians in New York, 57.
On the doctrines of, in regard to the ministry, 57. 137. 201. 206. 233. 255. 265. 365. 369. 372.
Address of the three Monthly Meetings of, in Philadelphia, in 1805 to their members, 68.
Notice of the Venlig Budbringer, a periodical published by, in Denmark and Norway, 71.
The early age of ministers among, at the rise of the Society, 71.
Notice of visitors to the meeting house of, at Fourth and Arch streets, Phila., 71.
Report of a Committee of the Western Quarterly Meeting of, appointed to visit its subordinate meetings, 78.
Account of the Quarterly Meeting of, held in Medford, N. J., Ninth Month, 1899. 90.
Liberty of conscience purchased by the sufferings of, 91.
The views of, in regard to the ministry the same as those of the early Christians, 95.
Account of the meeting of, near Muncy, Penna., 103.
Notice of a meeting of, in Philadelphia in aid of the Doukhobortsi, 103. 324.
The distinctive reasons for the existence of the Society of, 105.
Concern of Thomas Evans for the maintenance of plainness, &c., among, 107.
The doctrine of, in regard to war, 109. 371. 398.
Notice of a volume on the sufferings of the early, 110.
On joining in membership with, 105. 113.
Remarks of non-members on the influence and worship of, 118. 415.
On the importance of training the children of, in the attendance of meetings for discipline, 121.
Reply to a criticism in The Literary World on 129.
and the Indians of Pennsylvania, 130. 139. 148. 154. 162. 170. 177. 187.
On maintaining the principles of, in travelling, &c., 131.
Account of a tendering meeting recently appointed by, at Smithville, N. J., 133.
Notice of Philadelphia Quarterly Meeting of, held Eleventh Month 6, 1899, 135.
Illustration of the strength of character that is fostered by attending mid week meetings, 137.
The effects of the pastoral system upon the Society of, 137. 167. 185. 191. 233.
Notice of the Western Quarterly Meeting of, held at West Grove, Eleventh Month 24, 1899, 159.

XUM

Friends. Notice of a body under the name of, in Cuba, 159. 248. 271. 279. 391. 399.
Notice of a Quarterly Meeting of, held at West Branch, Iowa, Eleventh Month 19, 1899, 159.
Quotations respecting, from John Fiske's "Dutch and Quaker Colonies in America," 145, 167.
Notice of meetings appointed by, to be held at Lansdowne, Pa., 175. 183.
The fundamental principle of, to be reaffirmed when Truth breaks forth afresh, 178.
Notice of Haddonfield Quarterly Meeting held Twelfth Month 14, 1899, 183.
Remarks on explaining the views of, 183.
The discontinuance of a paid pastor by the meeting of, in Boston, 191.
The social life of, in Pennsylvania one hundred years ago, 197. 203.
On right religious teaching in the schools of, 201. 314.
The faithful suffering of one of the conscript, during the late civil war, 207.
Numerical statistics of meetings under the name of, 215.
On the equal attendance of the meetings of, by men and women, 217.
Testimony of Cork Monthly Meeting of Ireland, concerning a young man, 226.
On dress, viewed in connection with the Society of, 228, 236. 393.
are to be faithful both as individuals, and as a Society, 231. 265. 359.
Statistics of, in Philadelphia Yearly Meeting. 231. 248.
Remarks on considering and answering the queries addressed to, 233.
The attitude of Friends in regard to pastorate bodies, 233. 242.
Illustration of the adoption of the views of, by other professors 241.
The testimony of, to plainness of dress and address to be established in the earth, 253.
The doctrine of, regarding the Holy Scriptures, 260. 286. 329.
On the position of, in regard to doctrine, 262.
Remarks on recently published statistics concerning, 263. 303.
Benevolent impulses not the essence of Quakerism, but developments from it, 265.
The doctrine of, in regard to worship, 265. 350. 353. 372.
Notice of the appointments by, of public meetings, 271.
Notice of the Eastern Quarterly Meeting, N. C. of, held Second Month, 1900, 271.
Comments on blessings which have resulted from the faithfulness of, 275.
What makes a good Friend, 276.
Notice of an appointed meeting for, held at Fourth and Arch streets, 279.
The belief of, in regard to justification, 302. 335.
The doctrine of, in regard to baptism, 310. 317. 325. 330. 339. 345. 347.
Description of a perfect Quaker, 311.
The views of the early, are still in advance of the present times, 320.
Protest of, in Philadelphia in 1777, against the banishment of some of their members, 334.
Epistle of, in London, in 1776, respecting Friends in America, 334.
Warning to, against imposters, 351.
Notice of a meeting for, in Paris, 351.
in Rich Square Monthly Meeting, N. C. Remarks on, 351.
A concern for, proposed, 354.
Remarks to stir up, to more faithfulness, 359.
The doctrine of, in regard to the light of Christ, advocated by others, 369.
Notice of recent riotous persecution of, in England opposed to war, 373.
Encouragement to, to spread a knowledge of their doctrines, 377. 382. 415.
The views of, respecting civil government, 388. 397.
The methods of, are more than mere customs, 391.
The decrease in the number of, regretted by The Springfield Republican, 391.
Notice of Haddonfield Quarterly Meeting of, held Sixth Month 14, 1900, 391.
A member among, overtaken with a grevious calamity for neglecting religious meetings, 394.
Friends. Remarks on a spirit that would fritter away the testimonies of, 398.
Protest of, against militarism in Great Britain, 398.
Caution in reference to eulogies at funerals of, 399.
Caution in reference to ministry among, 399.
On the origin of the Society of, in France, 405.
A remnant to be found in various bodies of, faithful to the principles of, 409.
The Holy Spirit which led our early, continues the same, 415.
Friends Record Depository. Notice of, 191. 201. 204.
Friends' library. Notice of rare tracts to be added to the, 335.
Friends' church in Newberg, Oregon. Notice of, 175. Statistics of salaries paid pastors in. 279.
Friends' Teacher's Association. Notice of, 175.
Friendly relics preserved in London. Notice of, 60.
Friendships of duty and of choice. Remarks on the, 247.
Fruitfulness. Essay entitled, 358.
Fuller Thomas. Extract from, on singing, 4.
Funerals. Extravagance and sumptuousness at, condemned in the Gospel Messenger, 194.
Future. How does the past affect the, 212.

Genealogy. Essay entitled, 172.
Germany. Notes of a recent visit in, 326.
Genius in distress. Instances of, 99.
Gibbons Hannah. Passages from writings of, 255.
Gifts for good objects. On not receiving, from the "injurious," 330.
Girl. A, who acquired the habit of defeat, 238.
The ways of one busy, 268.
A little, "going to heaven" on a railway, 403.
Girls. Advice to, 219.
"Gift of listening to God. Extract entitled, "The, 111.
Giving. Remarks on, with simplicity, and not compromising with evil, 169.
Gleanings in the early history of Friends, 3. 14. 21. 29. 37.
God is love, 69.
Gold. Amounts of money represented in, 159.
Gospel. The choice made by Divine power in furthering the, 83.
Govern your tongue. Extract entitled, 130.
Government. On the views of Friends respecting, 388. 397.
Grandmother. Love the, 179.
Gravestones. Remarks in the Gospel Messenger on the inconsistency of, 194.
Great Britain and Ireland. Statistics of seating accommodations in places of worship in, 143.
Green James, of Lurgan, Ireland, a minister deceased. Account of, 230.
Incidents related by, of the conviction of an evil man, during a silent meeting for worship, 253.
Grellet Stephen. Account of an interview of, with the Emperor Alexander of Russia, 82. 94.
Incidents in the ministry of, 116.
Interview of, and W. Allen, with Doukhobors in Russia, 153.
Letter respecting a meeting of, with Jews in London, 235.
Grubb Sarah. Remarks of, in view of a low condition among Friends, 378.
Guacharo butter. On, 378.
Guilford College, N. C. Appeal on behalf of the education of girls at, 334.

Hague Conference. Appeal of British editors on behalf of the, 302.
Remarks on the valuable work of the, 387.
Hampton John and Mary. Some account of, prepared by their granddaughter, 171. 181. 189. 195. 205. 210. 220. 227. 234.
Hamton Ann. Testimony of Horsham Monthly Meeting concerning, 18.
Handwriting. The importance of good, 12.
A plea for distinct, among Friends, 249. 273. 279.
Harmoniously laboring for Truth's honor. On, 10.
Harvard College. Account of commencement exercises at, 401.
Health. The sanitary laws of Moses anticipate modern rules of, 12.
On the importance of gymnastics to the, of school children, 78.
The evil effects of the piano upon, 95.
On worry, as the great American disease, 151.
Study in moderation not injurious to, 167.
Health. On the effect of mental moods upon, 202.
Alcoholic medicines not necessary in restoring, 274.
Helping the weak, 366.
Heston Zebulon. Notice of the visit paid by, to the Delaware Indians in 1773, 177.
Hoag Joseph. Notice of the first recording of the vision of, 5.
Interview of, with a general in regard to war, 109.
Hockett Mahlon. Instructive incident in the life of, 394.
Holland. Account of a recent visit in, 101.
Holy living. The simplicity and sublimity of, 274.
Holy Scriptures The sanitary laws of Moses, anticipate modern rules of hygiene, 12.
On searching the, rightly, 17. 286.
The authorized version of the, a masterpiece of literature, 18.
The Revised Version of the, does not weaken a single important fact or doctrine, 22.
Remarks on a quotation, not in the, 26. 196.
A copy of the, containing valuable treasure, 51.
The Revised Version of the, confirms the views of Friends regarding the ministry, 57.
Notice of an early Concordance of the, 79
Illustration of the high value set on the, by an Indian, 91.
On the distribution of the, among Jews, 107.
Notice of clay tablets contemporary with the time of Abraham. 111.
On reading the, so that they may be spiritually profitable, 145. 260. 279.
Remarks on criticizing the historical facts mentioned in the, 154. 198. 241. 249.
On the artless simplicity of the style of the New Testament, 156.
Evidence of large sales of copies of the, 167.
The large acquaintance of President Kruger with the, 215.
The, an anvil which has worn out many hammers, 215.
Researches of the Prince of Granada upon the, 220.
Remarks on the above, 241.
An irreverent criticism of the, is working sad havoc, 231.
The views of Friends in regard to the, and the so-called "higher critics," 241.
On the neglect of the 253.
not the Word of God, which is Jesus Christ, 260.
On the importance to children, of committing portions of the, to memory, 284.
Testimony of George Whitehead to the, 329.
The doctrinal use of the, in Friends' schools, 337.
The inseparable relation between the Old and New Testament of the, 341.
Extract entitled, The unknown realms of the, 342.
The writers of the, did not need explicitly to tell by what authority they wrote, 377.
A translation of the, published in the Yiddish language for Jews, 396.
The desire of Filipinos for the, 415.
Home. Be strong in the attachment to, 95.
Incentive to young men and women to establish a, 103.
Appeal on behalf of The William Forster, Friendsville, Tenn., 310.
How to surprise an enemy. Extract entitled, 85.
Honor. On giving and receiving, from man, 271.
Holy Spirit. A physical exhilaration sometimes accepted as the work of the, 41.
A humble joy a result of the, 167.
The, leads all who follow it, into unity of doctrine and love, 262. 335.
The, is a teacher to the willing mind, 287.
The co-operation of the, in the church to be recognized and realized, 287. 335.
How to keep up the interest of our young people in our Society. Extract entitled, 44.
Comments on the above, 42.
Humility. Definition and illustration of, 268.
Hurried and flurried. On being, 76.
Hurry. Incident entitled An age of, 340.
Husband and wife. The mutual obligations of, 81.

Ice cave in Wyoming. A visit to an, 291.
Ice. On a cheap method of obtaining, 362.
"If I were a girl." Extract entitled, 219.
Importance of distinguishing between true and false conversions. The, 414.

"I'm sorry I spoke cross." Anecdote of a little girl, entitled, 109.
India. The testimony of a native of, respecting Christ and so-called Christians, 271.
Notice of an effort to relieve sufferers from famine in, 273. 375.
Indian. Anecdote of an educated, and Prof. Marsh, 215.
Indians. Notice of an account of some deceased, on the Allegheny Reservation, &c., 57.
A temptation to intemperance resisted by Christian, 119.
Religious opinions of the Lenni Lenape, in their original state, 123.
Remarks on hindrances to the civilization of the, 125.
of Pennsylvania and Friends, 130. 139. 148. 154. 162. 170. 177. 187.
Remark of, on "foolish water," 133.
On the methods of preparing maize as food by the, 167.
The employment of, for "Wild West" shows, 209.
Illustration by Red Jacket of the means employed to obtain the lands of the, 267.
Notice of a recent revival among the, of Alaska, 335.
of America. Statistics relating to the, 351.
Individual. The bringing out of the value of the, a result of the progress of the gospel, 238.
Influence. Remarks on our leavening, 86.
The, of one man for good, 299.
Our, upon others constantly exercised, 75.
Infidel. A converted, to burn his library, 39.
Account of the last days of Thomas Paine, 214.
The consistent life of a Christian is to the, an unanswerable argument, 372.
Remarks upon an impious challenge of an, 391.
An, reclaimed, 405.
Infidelity. Remarks on the statement of the belief of R. G. Ingersoll, read at his funeral, 33.
The desolation of heart caused by, shown in the family of R. G. Ingersoll, 47.
Remarks on the death of R. G. Ingersoll, 103.
the philosophy of despair, 311.
Instructive incidents and selections, 394.
Intemperance. The devil's missionary work to foster, 5.
A flask of brandy which went round the world, 43.
The results of prohibition on, 67. 155.
Effect of one boy's example in refusing wine, 85.
Strength imparted to Indians by Christianity to resist, 119.
A saloon-keeper's sign, 127.
Remarks on the effect of "foolish water," 133.
On the destructive effects of alcohol in the U. S. army, 137.
A prayer of a boy for his intemperate father answered, 155.
The striking results of prohibitory laws in checking, 155.
The evil effects of, in England upon the working classes, 260.
The town of Hobson, Ala., a colored settlement free from, 271.
The danger of promoting, by alcoholic medicines, 274.
On the power of alcohol to remove clothing, furniture, &c., from the home, 279.
Comments on establishing the saloon in the Philippines, 279.
Experience of a woman who had married a man to reform him from, 383.
The blot upon the United States for carrying liquor to the Philippines, 398.
Ireland. Account of a religious visit paid by Samuel Capper in, in 1841, &c., 69. 77. 84. 92. 115. 124. 131.
Irreverence one of the perils of our day, 79.
Isolated ones. Religious counsel addressed to the, 247.
Items concerning the Society, 7. 15. 55. 71. 79. 95. 103. 111. 127. 135. 143. 151. 159, 167. 175. 183. 191. 215. 231. 248. 255. 263. 271. 279. 303. 335. 351. 359. 367. 375. 391. 399. 415.
Insignificant work. Remarks on the importance of little things, entitled, 188.

Japanese. Politeness a national trait of the, 4.
women who dive for a living, 183.
Testimony of a, to Christianity, 226.
The religious views of many, of a spiritual character, 391.
Jew. The recent persecution of a converted, in Pittsburg, Pa., 132. 140. 146.
Jews. Notes concerning the, 53.
On the views of, respecting the expiation of sins, 79.
On the distribution of the Holy Scriptures among the, by John Wilkinson, of London, 107.
On the progress of Christianity among, 158.
The genealogical records of the, 172.
A Yiddish Bible published for, 396.
Job. Remarks on the exalted character of the Book of, 70. 191.
John, the nurse in yellow fever in Memphis, 229.
Joy of the Lord to be felt amid humble surroundings. The, 140.
Judge kindly. Extract entitled, 86.
Judgment. Remarks on differences of, 215.
Justification. The belief of Friends in regard to, 302. 335.

Kelly Howard, M. D. A Testimony of, to the blessedness of the service of Christ, 282.
Comments on the above, 297.
Kindness. Illustrations of, 163, 243.
On not deferring, until the proposed recipient is dead, 164.
The, of two noted men, 214.
Illustration of, entitled Pass it on, 243.
Kite Ruth M. Remarks on the death and character of, 86.
William. Remarks on the character and usefulness of the late, 258.
Kites. Notice of varieties of, 27.
Klondike region. On vegetation in the, 258.
Korea. Girls and boys in, 372.

Lady. Remarks upon a beautiful, 291.
On the use of the term, 375.
Lake Mohonk Conference. Notice of proceedings of, on arbitration, 387. 399.
Language. The testimony of Friends in regard to the plain, to be established in the earth, 253.
Encouragement to Friends, to use the plain, 394.
Latin language. Remarks on the official use of, by Roman Catholics, 359.
Law written on the heart. On the preciousness of obedience to the, 20.
Letter of Elizabeth Rogers after her return to unity with Friends, 60.
of Jesse H. Haines on the lapsed state of the Society, 127.
to Samuel Fothergill from one who was not a Friend, 278.
of Samuel Crisp on his convincement of the principles of Friends, 291. of J. Bevan Braithwaite, 311.
Letters from the Orient, 11. of Joseph S. Elkinton relating to his visit among the Doukhobortsi in Canada, 46. 51. 59. 65. of Eliza H. Varney respecting her visit to the Doukhobortsi in Canada, 65. of William Bellows, 65. of Edward Browne, 250. of Catharine Seely, 261. of Elihu Burritt, 297. of John Letchworth, 301.
of Morris Cope, 346. of John C. Havemeyer on the need of lay preaching, 361.
of Caroline E. Stephen on meetings for worship, 372.
Life of the Spirit. Essay entitled, The, 273.
Life. Spiritual, distinguishes man from the lower animals, 101.
This, but the beginning of an unending, 183.
The effect of the rush of modern times in shortening, 198.
The high function of family, 202.
A Christian, sometimes begins very simply and quietly, 231.
The secret of a calm and happy, 234.
The simplicity and sublimity of an, 274.
Life—temporal and spiritual. Essay entitled, 229.
Living. The cost of, increased fifteen per cent. within a year, 198.
eloquently. On, 298.
Life-saving service. Statistics of the operations of, for 1899, 270.
Light. Some fruits of walking in the, 275.
Listening. On the habit of good, 287.
Long John D., now Secretary of the Navy Lines by, 375.
Love. Essay entitled, 270.

Made right inside. Extract entitled, 126.
Mail. On carrying the, in pneumatic tubes, 22.
Maine. On the results of the prohibition law in, 67.
Making the best of his situation. Account of a prisoner, entitled, 196.
Making the valley of Baca a well. Extract entitled, 370.
Manners of God's family. Extract entitled, The, 141.
Markham Edwin. Notice of the life and poetry of, 19.
Marriages. Samuel W. Jones and Florence S. Moore, 168.
Chester Mott and Joanna Bowles, 200.
Ezra G. Griffin and Mary E. Brown, 216.
John G. Peele and Mary T. Saunder, 288.
Elias Crew and Matilda E. Crew, 344.
Alfred Standing and Alice L. Crew, 344.
Nathan Kite and Anna Margaret Price, 416.
Massachusetts. Notice of the MSS. "History of Plymouth Plantation," by Gov. Bradford, 383.
Remarks on the early settlers of, 402.
Martyrs in Africa. Account of the recent death of, 239.
Mary, a praying servant girl, 375.
Mauna Loa, the Hawaiian volcano. Account of, 62.
Man. The duty of, in this world to believe, adore, love and obey God, 270.
McKinne Alberta, a blind girl given sight, 143.
Meals. On the habit of making a silent pause before, 55. 153. 225.
Mediocrity. On the, in wisdom of despising, 181.
Meek and quiet spirit. On a, 399.
Mennonites in America. The, 243.
Mental kodaks. On the training of children, entitled, 356.
Memorial of Narcissa B. Coffin, 5.
Remarks on the above, 25.
of Ann Hamton, 18.
of Charles F. Wakefield, 116. of William Penn, 226. of William Wright of Cork, Ireland, 226. of Joseph Walton, 322.
Mercy. It becomes us to show, 134.
Merit. Essay entitled, 66.
Methodists. Remarks of a bishop of, on worldliness in the church, 79.
Equal representation granted to laymen among, 351.
Mice. On singing, 316.
Milhous Robert. Selections from the letters and memoranda of, [continued from Vol. lxxii, p. 406] 34. 61. 86. 93. 156. 164. 211. 307. 327.
Minister. Not a hireling, 375.
Ministry. Remarks of what is needed in the, 18. 332. 365. 386.
On a true call to the, 55. 129. 329. 394.
The views of Friends in regard to the, confirmed by the Revised Version, 57.
The testimony of Friends against a paid, 81.
The, in the early Christian church allowed only to those who spoke from the Spirit, 95.
The presence of Christ felt in an assembly, better than human, 100.
The severe exactions of a man-worked, 183.
On the recognition of gifts in the, 201. 255.
On a suggested retirement of persons above 60 years old from the, 206.
Those only who are cleansed are called rightly to the, 207.
On the views of Friends in regard to the, 233. 251. 365. 369. 394.
Remarks of James Emlen on a brief and lively, 263.
A hired man, neither Scriptural nor Christian, 263.
The testimony of Friends against a, exercised as a matter of course, 265.
On the injury done to the church, by separating those engaged in the, as a distinct class, 283.
On the power of Divine grace operating on the mind, without outward, 318.
On the injurious effects of a wordy, 365.
On the distinction between lecturing on religious subjects and, 369.
Instructive incidents in connection with the, 394.
Minnesota. Account of a recent visit to, 75.
Misquoted lines. Instances of, 196.
Miracles. On, 269.
Monkeys employed in a gold mine, 13.
Mother. Loyalty to, 15.
An appeal for the, 206.
Tender love and firmness of a, 227.
Mothers-in-law. On unjust criticisms of, 209.
Morality. Influence of mental activity upon, 26.
Moody Dwight L. On the death and dedication of, 193.
Remarks of, on "higher criticism" of the Bible, 198.

More sure word of phophecy. Essay entitled, The, 365.
Mormons. Antagonism to, in different parts of the United States, 47.
Mourning garments. The testimony of Friends against wearing, 236.
Movements of ministering Friends, 7. 15. 55. 57. 71. 79. 95. 103. 111. 127. 135. 143. 159. 191. 215. 263. 351. 359.
Muncy Friends' Meeting. Account of, 103.
Music. Remarks on accepting the exhilaration caused by, for the work of the Holy Spirit, 41. 161. 281. 303.
The evil effects of the piano from a medical standpoint, 95.
A lover of, turned from it by a dream, 279.
Objections to, by Hannah More, 406.
My experience in a mad-house. Narrative of the persecution of a converted Jew, 132. 140. 146.
"My mother is praying for me." Extract entitled, 151.
Mysteries. Essay entitled, 278.

Name. The new, 273.
Natural History. Do fishes sleep? 30; The ostrich, 43; Phosphorescent animals, 83; The reindeer, 219; The shapes of birds' eggs, 250; Singing mice, 316; The beetle as a grave-digger, 330; The cost of exterminating the gipsy moth, 333; A young flying squirrel, 356; Intellectual ants, 405; Medical instincts of animals, 406.
Nation. The true glory of a, its intellectual and moral superiority, 221.
The destruction wrought by war on the Christian character of the, 380.
Nature. Comments on laws governing the forces of, 275.
Negro. Remarks on the progress of the American, 301.
Nestorians of Persia. Notice of the absorption of, by the Greek church, 63.
New Jersey. On the forests buried in the swamps of, 364.
Newspaper. The Montreal Witness said to be the only Christian daily in the world, 111.
Newspapers. Statistics of the valueless contents of many, 39.
Remarks on an effort to improve the moral tone of, 257.
Not idle in the market place. Notice of a righteous huckster woman entitled, 327.
Notes from others, 39. 47. 55. 63. 79. 95. 103. 111. 119. 127. 143. 159. 167. 183. 192. 198. 215. 223. 231. 263. 271. 279. 287. 295. 303. 335. 351. 359. 375. 391. 399. 415.
Number 135. Remarks on an honest man entitled, 180.

Oath. An affirmation taken instead of an, 295.
Obedience to religious convictions better than discussion, 60.
to manifested duty more important than knowledge, 273.
"Of faith, fire-winged by martyrdom." Essay entitled, 221.
Oil on troubled waters. The efficacy of, 108.
One bond left. Extract entitled, 84.
One day at a time. On living, 239.
One aim and one love in a poor African, 407.
Only a pin. Remarks on the effects of a single indulgence in an evil habit, entitled, 190.
Only half a point. On the danger attending small deviations from right, entitled, 413.
Opium curse. Statistics in reference to the, 324.
Oranges. On the growing of seedless, 370.
Ostrich. On the, 43.
Our meek and lowly example. Essay entitled, 188.
Overcome. How to, answered, 69.
Overdoing is undoing, 127.

Paine Thomas. Account of the last days of, 214. 233.
Painter. C. F. Felu, a celebrated, without arms, 277.
Palestine. Letters describing a recent visit in, 11.
Paraffin from the oil wells of Assam, 110.
Parents. The duty of, to bring them up in the nurture and admonition of the Lord, 81.
Parrish John. Notice of the visit by, to the Delaware Indians in 1773, 177.
Pastor. The, as an official person not known in the New Testament, 10.
Pastoral system. The destructive effects of, upon the testimonies of Friends, 137. 167. 191. 240. 345.
Practical results of the, among various denominations, 185. 206. 233.
The evils of the, stated by Presbyterians, 263.
The influence of, to lessen the ministry of women, 279.
Patent. Notice of the first American, 154.
Patience. On the blessings of, 37. 167.
Patriotism. Remarks on spurious, by William Everett, 409.
Passmore Mary K. Tract by, entitled, "Christians, obey your Captain," 298.
Patrick, of Ireland, not a salaried preacher, 63.
Peace. The social development of, 239.
A plea in behalf of, addressed to Christian professors of every name, 371.
Penington Isaac. On searching the Scriptures rightly, 17.
Pernicious literature. Illustration of, and comments, 357.
Penn William. Notice of relics of, preserved in London, 60.
Letter of, to the Indians of Pennsylvania, and comments, 130.
Evidences of the concern of, for the religious welfare of the Indians, 139.
Incidents showing the affection of Indians for, 187.
A recent description of, 197.
Testimony concerning, from Friends at Reading, Eng., 226.
Pennsylvania. The social life of Friends in, one hundred years ago, 197. 203.
Pescadero, California. Account of a recent visit to, 147.
Perfumes from coal tar, &c., 87.
Peter the apostle blessed by Divine revelation to him, 351.
"Peter the Great and the Quakers." Extract entitled, 278.
Pharisaism a religion without Christlikeness, 61.
Philadelphia. Notice of public improvements first started in, 170.
A proposed census of homes in, 223.
A protest addressed to the mayor of, from the Social Purity Alliance, 263.
A religious census of, 271.
Philippine islands. The demoralization in the, caused by Americans, 125.
Phonograph proposed as a help in the study of languages. The, 360.
Photography. The aid furnished by, in scientific researches, 343.
Pilkington the missionary killed after firing upon others, 166.
Pity. On the service of manifesting, 414.
Plants that seem to reason, 163.
Plants. The date tree in Arizona, 28; The largest flower in the world, 253; Long-lived seeds, 322; Seedless oranges, 370.
Plea in behalf of peace. A, issued by Philadelphia Yearly Meeting of Friends, 371. 375.
Poetry.—Original. Our Consoler, 12; Memories, 37; Danger, 69; Trusting Jesus, 69; Feeding, 94; Christian love, 101; In the Sierra Moreno mountains, 147; At Pescadero Pebble Beach, 147; The Doukhobors' thanksgiving, 148; Vocal winds, 173. 184; Indian summer thoughts, 180; Guard thy thoughts, 204; When work is done, 213; The test of testimony, 214; The river of peace, 252; When shall war end? 262; Lines, 267; Ode to Fourth and Arch Street meeting-house, 274; The guests of the heart, 284; A true experience, 285; Sloth spiritual, 310; My prayer, 381; Light vs. darkness, 405.
Poetry.—Selected. Alexander the Great, 5; The aged Christian's psalm of rest, 61; Alone with my conscience, 374; Boyhood days at Middleton, Ohio, 53; The books of the Bible, 260; Betake thyself to prayer, 414; A Camden Quaker meeting, 95; Count the mercies, 109; Conscience, 202; Ecclesiastes, xi: 4, 250; God's keeping, 93; He careth, 318; If we only understood, 85; In earnest, 156; "I am," 196; Kansas' wall of corn, 77; Lines, 53. 260. 292. 381; The little messenger of love, 364; Lines by John D. Long, 375; The man with the hoe, 19; The message of peace, 44; Merit, 66; Mother's room, 406; The new year, 206; A name in the sand, 244; "Nothing to do," 380; The petrel, 30; Put up the sword, 188; Praying in spirit, 268; The penalty, 270; Palestine, 276; A prayer 230 years old, 340; A prayer, 356; Pslam lxxviii, 414; The surrender of conscience, 91; "Sterling Stuff," 301; Sometime, 349; The seen and the unseen, 396; The two taverns, 19; The test of faith, 78; Why shouldn't I? 164; The water lily, 173; "Worse things than war!" 236; The world's perennial hope, 278.
Politeness at the expense of sincerity. On, 110.
Population of the world. The great increase of the heathen, as compared with the Christian, during the last century, 287.
Porto Rico. The small amount of money raised to relieve distress in, compared with that for war for professedly humane purposes, 125.
Disorderly conduct of American soldiers in, 300.
Poverty. An offer made to those in, not accepted, 207.
Post Christian Frederick. Notice of the useful services performed by, to Pennsylvania, 162.
"Pray without ceasing," explained, 375.
Prayer. The, of a little boy for his father, answered, 155.
On unspoken, 359.
Remarks on applauding, 415.
Power of Divine grace, preached or unpreached. The, 318.
Preacher. A, shunning his cross, 223.
Preachers. Notice of a superabundance of salaried, 79. 119.
On the failure of modern, to bring to view the retributive justice of God, 119.
An effect of theological schools, on, 125.
The, of primitive Christianity compared with some modern, 135.
Queries addressed to, respecting the accordancy of war with the Christian religion, 166.
Remarks of The Presbyterian on effective, 186.
The tendency of salaried, to voice the sentiments of their employers, 193. 303.
Remarks of Gov. Rollins, of New Hampshire, on the injury done by, in amusing rather than instructing the people, 209.
Women increasingly recognized as, 231.
Comments on, 301.
on sensational topics reproved, 386.
Presbyterianism. Reasons assigned for the decline of, in New York, 79.
Presbyterian. Remarks of a, on the priesthood of believers, 283.
Presbyterians. Action of, in regard to McGiffert heresy charges, 263.
Remarks on the doctrine of, respecting foreordination, 303.
Remarks of, in reference to advances of Methodist forms of worship among them, 335.
Prisoner. Account of a, making the best of his situation, 196.
Prisoners. On the humanizing effect upon women, of a baby, 124.
Prince of Wales. On the origin of the title, 339.
Proverbs of savage races. Some pointed, 119.
Providential deliverances, 151. 267.
Providential guidance. Instances of, 22. 146.
Present trial of faith. Essay entitled, The, 10.
Priestliness. On the pretentions of, 262. 268.
"Prohibition does not prohibit." The truth of the statement examined, 155.
"Push the button." Considerations on working together with Christ, entitled, 3.

Quakri at Lurgan. Extract from, The, 175.
Quiet hour. On, The, 26. 412.

Rabinowitz Joseph, a reformed Jew. Account of, 53.
Railway. A little girl "going to heaven" on a, 403.
Railways. On great world, 20.
On suitably rewarding the employees of, 41.
Reading matter. On the demands of fashion in regard to, 76.
The effects of bad, in producing crime, 117.
The deadening effect of fictitious, upon the feelings, 145.
One kind of fictitious, 173.
Pernicious, on religious subjects, 357.
Red Cross report. An unofficial, 274.
Reed George W. Convincement of, through the instrumentality of Barclay's Apology, 333. 338.
Reformed Episcopal church. Doctrines condemned by the, 143.
Regeneration. Man's part in, 231.
Reindeer. On the introduction of, into Alaska, 219.
Religion. The Christian, a religion of authority, 7. 159.
The Christian. The effects of exemplified in the island of Ephati, 95. defined, 28.
Remarks on the emptiness of a nominal, 28.
Remarks on ebbs and flows in spiritual experience, 31. 394.
The test of, is its influence upon the heart, 107.
by programme. Extract entitled, 119.
of the heart largely superseded by labors of the hands, 159.
The, of Christ contrasted with that of opinion, 159.

INDEX.

Religion. The, of Christ contrasted with that of self-culture, 177.
to be promoted among men only by co-operation with the Holy Spirit, 217.
On borrowed, 308.
depends on having the spirit of Christ, 359.
The final test of, 364.
Unconcern respecting, illustrated, 365.
Struggles and exercises inseparable from a progress in, 394.
On the importance of distinguishing between true and false conversions in, 414.
Report of a committee of Western Quarterly Meeting, appointed to visit its subordinate meetings, 78.
Respect of persons. On, 28.
Revelation. Divine, to the apostle Peter blessed, 351.
Reverend. The impropriety of the use of the word, as a title of respect, 12.
The title of, declined by the author of "Verbum Dei," 192.
Religious denominations. Observations on, 95.
Repentance defined by a child, 186.
Richest man in the county. Incident entitled, The, 66.
Right word. Illustrations of the value of a, 389.
Ritualism. The effect of, upon vital religion, 375.
Roman Catholics. On the doctrine of the apostolic succession of the, 9.
The possibility that, may gain the ascendancy in the United States, 103.
On confession and absolution among, 167.
Remarks on the claims of, 198.
The alienation of men from religion in countries where, predominate, 217.
A priest suspended for opposing wrong practices among, 263.
A priest among, renounces the doctrines of, 367.
Escape of Archibald Bonner from the Inquisition, 379.
Remarks of, on the use of force by the early professing Christian Church, 407.
Rome. Saving banks used by children in ancient, 169.
When at, do as Romans do, a very dangerous teaching, 361.
Ruskin John. Self-denial practised by, for the welfare of others, 279.
Russia. Account of an interview of Stephen Grellet with the Emperor Alexander I. of, 82. 94.
The chief ruler of, is emperor, not czar, 159.
Peter the Great of, and Friends, 278.
A commission appointed in, to consider Siberian exile, 348.
Incident in the French occupation of, 365.

Saints. Essay entitled, 222.
Salvation. Objection to the doctrine of the final and universal, of all, 338.
Sample of the past. Extracts from the Memoirs of Catharine Seely, entitled, A, 254, 261.
Letter of Samuel Crisp, after becoming a Friend, 291.
School. The importance of mastering the elements of learning at, 18.
The unwise multiplicity of studies, a cause of overstrain at, 126.
On training boys in, for self-government, 161.
Trouble in a public, over religious ceremonies, 223.
Schools. On right religious training in Friends, 201.
Remarks on the introduction of Froebel's methods in, 223.
Relations of Friends' Boarding, to their religious Society, 314.
The doctrinal use of the Holy Scriptures in Friends', 337.
On training by the literary and the laboratory method in, 385.
Schoolmaster. The influence for good of a conscientious, 306. 347.
Sea. On the phosphorescence of the, 83.
Sea-diver. A talk with a, 201..
Seasonable literature. Remarks on spreading the writings of Friends, entitled, 382.
Secret Sins. Illustration of the danger of, 188.
Seely Catharine, of Darien, Conn. Extracts from Memoirs of, 254, 261.
Sects, On the meaning and usefulness of, 30, 63.
Self. God's Revelations of, to be welcomed, 229.
Forgetfulness of, in order to please God, 275.
Self-denial. On the blessings which follow, 87. 263.
Serious facts by Herman Haupt, 28.
"Servants of the living God." Extract entitled, 197.
Seneca oil. The usefulness of, 155.
Sensitive ears. Extract entitled, 116.
Self-sacrifice necessary to the Christian character, 286.
Sermon is nothing if without the spirit of the gospel. A, 303.
Sermons. The kind of, that are most needed, 415.
Seeds. On the vitality of certain, 322.
Self-control. The necessity of, 380.
Sharpless Edward. Brief mention of the ministry of, 86.
Shawangunk Mountains. Notes on the scenery, etc., of the, 62.
Sheldon. Chas. M. Notice of, 399.
Shipwreck. Account of a recent rescue from, 238.
Providential deliverance from, 267.
Shoes of the world. The, 178.
Siberian exile. A commission appointed by the czar in reference to, 348.
Sight for one born blind. Extract entitled, 143.
Silence about ourselves enjoined, 155.
The meaning and service of, in meetings for worship, 289. 350. 354.
Sin that doth so easily beset described. The, 242.
Sins. Remarks on certain, compared to "little foxes," 198.
Sin. Still it is, 268.
Sincerity. The virtue of, 389.
Skin-grafting. Observations on, 116.
Slanders. On discouraging, in the family, 213.
Slave. Exclamations of a, on being liberated, 197.
Smithville, N. J. Account of a religious meeting recently held by Friends at, 133.
Sorrow. The secret of blessing in, is in acquiescence, 307.
Soul. The spiritual awakening of the, is beyond the explanations of science, 27.
The, at rest, 295.
Statistics of membership in the Yearly Meeting held at Fifteenth and Race Streets, Philadelphia 368.
Stephen Caroline E. On starving and feeding in meetings for worship, 372.
Stars as timekeepers. The, 215.
Strength in stillness, 250.
Studies. Divine help sought in our, 165.
Sturge Wilson. On the recent death and character of, 121. 151.
Suffering. On the growth of the Christian character through, 150. 191.
Suffering for the cause of truth. On, 359.
Summary of Events, 8. 16. 23 .32. 39. 47. 55. 64. 71. 80. 87. 95. 104. 112. 119. 127. 135. 144. 151. 159. 167. 175. 184. 192. 199. 208. 215. 224. 231. 240. 248. 255. 264. 271. 279. 287. 296. 303. 311. 320. 327. 335. 343. 351. 360. 368. 375. 383. 392. 399. 407. 416.
Summer school of religious history, at Haverford, Pa., 303.
"Swear not at all." Incidents entitled, 295.

Taber Louis. Brief notice of, and lines by, 61.
Talk well. How to learn to, 75.
Teacher. Common-sense, knowledge and love should mark the character of the, 164.
Intellectual training without religious experience not sufficient in the, 347.
Temptation. The essence of, is disobedience to God, 265.
Temptation and Trials. Essay entitled, 395.
"Thanksgiving" days. Historical notes respecting, 192.
Theatre The, to be avoided, 28.
The withering effect of the, upon noble emotions, 145.
The killing effect upon sympathy, of the, 196.
A protest against the, by the Social Purity Alliance, 263.
Reasons for not going to the, 290.
Reasons why Jenny Lind left the, 362.
Then and Now. Address to college students by Prof. H. A. Kelly, entitled, 282.
"They say," On, 159.
Thomson Chas. W. Testimony of, to the weak and beggarly character of the outward ordinances, 179.
Three days on the Rhine. Essay entitled, 326.
Time. What becomes of our surplus? 60.
On trustees and embezzlers of, 225.
Titles. On unscriptural, given to preachers, etc., 71.
Tobacco. Testimony borne by Friends against raising, 276.
Tolstoy. Count Leo. Notice of the excommunication of, 399.
Tongue. On bridling the, 393.
Tract Association of Friends. Annual report of, 318.
Friends encouraged to spread the publication of the, 377.
Tract published by, concerning George Withy, 382.
Tract Society. Statistics relating to the American, 351.
Trees. Notice of curious, 7.
Truly called. Essay entitled, 55.
Truth diviner than fiction, 156.
Turn to the right. Essay entitled, 158.
Turpentine. On uses of spirits of, 252.
Twentieth century. A hopeful Christian outlook for the, 35.
Tyranny of literature." Essay entitled, "The, 76.

Unchangeable and covenant-keeping God." Essay entitled, "The, 332.
United States. The marking of the northern boundary of the, with monuments, 247.
Universities in the United States. Statistics of, 47.
Unity. Essay entitled, 165.
Unspoken sermons. Extract from, 273.

Venning John. Account of, and the imprisoned Finns, 190.
Visit to Minnesota. A, 75.
Voltaire. A testimony of, to the emptiness of his life, 311.

Waldmeier Theophilus. Notice of the asylum founded by, in Palestine, 375.
Walton Joseph. Testimony of Chester Monthly Meeting (N. J.) concerning, 322.
Wakefield Charles F. A minister deceased. Testimony of Lurgan Monthly Meeting, concerning, 116.
"Waiting for my boy." Incident entitled, 166.
War. Incident in the late Spanish, entitled "Thou callest me, friend," 18.
Results of the international conference at The Hague respecting, 36. 39. 387.
On the effects of in the Soudan in barbarizing English soldiers, 39.
Remarks on the non-performance of duty by the churches in regard to, 55. 398.
On the horrors and butcheries of, 58.
The desire of Alexander I of Russia for arbitration instead of, in 1812, 82.
The prodigal expenditures of the United States encouraged by, 91.
How militarism increases taxes, 91.
The surrender of conscience caused by, 91. 399.
Remarks on the aggression and rapacity urged upon England in a, in South Africa, 91. 380.
Christianity is radically at variance with, 105. 399.
Interview of Joseph Hoag with a General in regard to, 109.
Denounced by different nations before the advent of Christianity, 119.
The humiliating spectacle now presented by England and America in regard to, 125. 303. 380.
The striking contrast shown in expenditures for, and for the relief of distress, 125.
The horrible results of the, in the Philippine islands, 125. 398.
The effects of the canteen in the U. S. army more destructive than bullets, 137.
Remarks on the approval of, from the pulpit, 153. 193. 398.
Speech of General D. B. Henderson, of Iowa, against, 162.
Statistics of the cost of the U. S. army for one year, 166.
The duty of Christians to counteract the prevailing tendency towards, 166. 282. 380. 398. 399.
Fresh illustration that, is not the occupation for the missionary, 166.
Queries addressed to ministers, etc., in regard to, 166.
The seat of, is in the human heart, 169.
On one effect of the present, in South Africa, 183.
On inflaming the public mind in favor of, by the poet-laureate of England, etc., 193.
On bearing a consistent testimony against the, in the Philippines, 194. 209.
Everywhere an outrage and a shame, 198.
Testimony of a Friend, drafted during the late civil war, against, 207.
The, in the Philippines attributed largely to the spirit engendered by boys' brigades, 215.
On the prevention of, in South Africa, 218.
The Louisville Courier-Journal on the cruelties of, and comments 223.
An Armenian who died rather than kill, 223.
Remarks on the responsibility of the President for the Philippine, 233.
Incident entitled The tragic side of, 238.
The abolition of, by pacific measures, 239. 387.

War. Declarations of C. H. Parkhurst, of New York City, against, 265.
Comments on a tax for, and other purposes in the U. S., 279.
The verdict of history in regard to, 279. 380.
will be ended when nations come under the control of Christ, 281.
Comments on the decadence of proper public feeling in regard to, 282. 380. 398, 399.
Remarks of Elihu Burritt on bearing a testimony against, 297.
A tract against, entitled "Christians, obey your Captain," 298.
Appeal of the Lombardy Peace Society to the members of the British press against, 302.
The testimony of the early Christians against, 316.
The dangers resulting from, to the future freedom of thought, 320.
On the desolating effect of, upon the church, 329. 380. 399.
Statistics of the cost of, 351.
A plea in behalf of peace, addressed by Friends to Christian professors of every name, 371.
Notice of riotous persecution of Friends in England opposed to, 373.
The destruction caused by, of Christian character, 380.
Protest against, by Friends in Great Britain, 398.
On the need of constant, serious and intelligent opposition to, 398.
Declaration of the Lake Mohonk Conference, 1900, in reference to the prevention of, 399.
Remarks of Wm. Everett, at Harvard against, 403.
A testimony against, in France, 405.
An arraignment of, by William Everett, 409.
War and peace notes, 125. 166. 398.
Washington Booker T. The early years of, 45.
Wastefulness in spiritual things. On, 222.
Watch as a wonderful machine, A, 140.
Water. True baptism not that of water, 310. 317. 325. 330. 339. 347.
Remarks on the above, 345.
Wealth should be used in service for the Master, 28.
Webster, Noah, the author of the spelling-book and dictionary, 390.
Wells and springs. On the rising of water in, before rain 362.
Comments on the above, 378.
What one boy did. Effect of an example in refusing wine, entitled, 85.
What would Jesus do? Essay entitled, 340.
Whatever He would have me to do. Incident entitled, 250.
Whitehead. Testimony of, respecting the Holy Scriptures, 329.
Whittier John G. Notice of a letter of, 17.
White, Roy Wilson. Remarks on the murder of, 359.
Who shall inherit? Essay entitled, 366.
Why deny Christ? Essay entitled, 290.
Wigham Eliza, of Edinburgh. Notice of the life and religious character of, 163.
Comments on the above, 161.
Wild beasts. On the danger from, 373.
Wilson Rachel. On the character and ministry of, 387.
Sarah. Instructive incident in the ministry of, 394.
Withy George. Narrative of the life and labors of, 382.
Woolman John. The close walk of, with God the cause of his great influence, 275.
Woman. A dying, saved through the instrumentality of a Friend, 389.
Women. The object of consumers' Leagues in benefiting, 2.
The Chicago Theological Seminary to train, as preachers. 47.
as physicians, 227.
increasingly recognized as preachers in different churches, 231.
The teachings of the Apostle Paul in regard to, 295.
An ideal in the education of, 388,
Work. He has hard, who has nothing to do, 206.
Work and worry. The different effects of, upon health, 167.
Workman. A faithful, 366.
Worship. On the action of the Holy Spirit in silent meetings for, 20.
The listening to God in silent meetings for, 111. 353.
Remarks on music, etc., as entertainments in meetings for, 127. 369. 409.
The exhilaration of the senses by music, not, 161. 281.
not dependent upon the removal of the hat, 169.
The injurious effects of closing houses for, in the city, during the summer, 183.
Notice of the appreciation by strangers of silent, in a Friends' meeting, 209.
On the non-attendance of places of, by many people, 215. 231.
Happy effects upon a bad man during a silent meeting for, 253.
Worship. On the responsibility of all present in meetings for, 265.
The hearing of faith preferred to words in meetings for, 275.
On mistaking the emotions of the senses for, 281.
Comments on the above, 303.
The meaning and service of silence in meetings for, 289. 350. 354. 372.
Reasons of F. R. Havergal for going to meetings for, on rainy days, 295.
On controlling our thoughts during meetings for, 353.
Remarks of Caroline E. Stephen on starving and feeding in meetings for, 372.
A Friend overtaken with a grievous calamity for neglecting meetings for, 394.
The duty of public, falling out of view, 409.
On daily seeking for a period of silent, 412.
Yeardley John and his travels [continued from vol. lxxii, p 402], 27. 404. 413.
Yearly Meeting. Baltimore, 1899. Notice of proceedings of, 159. 167.
Canada, 1899. Extracts from correspondence of, 49.
Iowa, 1899. Notice of proceedings of, 127.
London, 1776. Extracts from an epistle of, 334.
New England, 1899. Extracts from correspondence of, 49.
1840. Address of, respecting civil government, 388. 397.
New York. Notice of a recent gift to, for educational purposes, 71.
New York, 1900. Notice of proceedings of, 391.
North Carolina, 1899. Notice of, 55.
Ohio, 1899. Account of, 100.
Philadelphia. Statistics of membership in, 231.
On the approach of the, 302.
Notice of the proceedings of, 313. 321.
Testimony of issued in 1777, 334
A plea in behalf of peace, by, 371.
Western, 1899. Account of, 114.
Yearly Meetings. Quinquennial conference of American. Notice of, 71.
Yiddish Bible. Notice of a, 396.
Young man. Testimony of Friends in Cork, Ireland, concerning a, 226.
Youth. The, must reap what they sow, 12.
Zig-zagging. Remarks on gadding after worldly things, entitled, 134.
Zionward. Essay entitled, 378.